

HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

"A Dessert Bride will be held . . ."

So stated the social item received this week, hot from the smoking typewriter of a local publicity person.

First I figured that "Desert Bride" was meant—maybe a Las Vegas wedding?

No, this was definitely Desert and it was going to be held after dinner in some swank joint, no doubt.

I finally figured it out:

"A Dessert BRIDGE will be held . . ."

Speaking of brides, does your heart bleed for Ingrid Bergman?

In my opinion, this bogus Joan of Arc got exactly what was coming to her . . . She left a perfectly good husband to hang out with Benito Mussolini—pardon me, Roberto Rossellini—and their affair was a stench in the public nostrils.

Now, Roberto has been hanging out with an Indian woman, who, of course, has a husband and children. Roberto hired her as a script writer at $525 a month. (This ain't hay in India; it's exactly what Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru gets.)

Did she ever write a script? Can she write her own name?

Deponent saith not.

Anyhow, Ingrid is fleeing to Hollywood—where she will be welcomed as a heroine, no doubt.

Let's let a little fresh air into these precincts:

Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians will appear at Russ Auditorium Sunday and a fellow named Chuck Watterson popped into the office Tuesday to beat the drums in advance of Fred's arrival.

He tossed a lot of fancy adjectives around and I gathered that a Hi-Fi sound system was built especially for this tour of the Pennsylvanians and will be installed in the auditorium prior to the performance.

"This," said Watterson, "will make every seat in the house a choice one."

He admitted, after some prodding, that tickets are available at the Howarth box office, BE-9-6469.

No he didn't slip me a pair . . . I should have nudged him, huh?

How do you like that guy Jerome Keithley of Palo Alto?

The City Council named him city manager of S. D., and he came to town over the weekend and looked us over and then announced he didn't want the job.

Maybe he read that front page story in a S. D. daily headed "Here's What Faces New Manager."

That would have scared me away, brother.

Or maybe he saw the honky-tonks on Broadway and decided this is no place for a fella from Palo Alto.

It's no place for a fella from Point Loma, either.

Point Loma Takes On San Diego Friday Night In Balboa Stadium

Point Loma High School's football team will complete its 1957 campaign against powerful San Diego High Friday night—and the local boys may rise to the occasion.

The game is set for 8 p.m. in Balboa Stadium.

Although Joe Varley, 190-pound center; Chuck Mitchell, halfback; and perhaps others are expected to miss the game because of the flu, the Pointers will field a strong lineup and their "attitude and desire" will be all-important.

The team was scheduled to be honored last night at a dinner in the Point Loma Community Church.

Flu undoubtedly played a part in last week's 7-7 tie game with Mission Bay.

However, the depleted local team came up with some outstanding football and special mention should go to Chuck Klein, tackle; Roger Sneed, end; Jim Bone, linebacker; and Doug Minton, who filled in for ailing Roger Soares at quarterback.

Minton threw a pass to Ray Hermans for the Point Loma touchdown.

Mrs. Brozey Heads Cabrillo PTA 'Y' World Festival

Mrs. Lois Brozey, 1471 Pescadero Dr., will be chairman again this year for the widely popular World Festival given annually by the Young Women's Christian Association to raise funds to finance the work of the International YWCA in 65 countries.

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6 and 7, from 5 until 10 p.m., have been chosen as dates for the miniature World-Fair-like event featuring an international flavor, which annually attracts crowds of county residents, men, women and children alike, to the downtown YWCA headquarters, 1012 C St., for both entertainment and bazaar.

The World Festival, in which the entire association of the YWCA participates, will enlist the support and cooperation of many YWCA groups, as well as individual members and friends. Groups participating in the project include the Y-Teens, Y-Ettes, Y-Wives, Mr. and Mrs. Clubs, the International Club

Members of the Cabrillo School PTA, another of the active associations of Loma Council, will meet Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 7:30 in the school auditorium.

The panel will discuss the "School in Action—Through Guidance, Health, Recreation" in a group centering its theme on "Let's Talk It Over." Members of the panel, specialists in various facets of the life of the school child are: Mrs. Anne K. Bittkofer, visiting teacher; John Laney, psychologist; Miss H. R. Kornelson, school nurse; Gerry A. DeLay, playground director.

Following the discussion and question period a social hour will be held in the school cafeteria. Second grade mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lawrence Millikin will serve refreshments.

SUNSET VIEW SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE TONIGHT

Don Chamberlin, supervisor of elementary instruction for the City Schools, will be the guest speaker at Sunset View Elementary School Thursday, Nov. 14, at 7 p.m.

His talk will be in connection with American Education Week activities and he will speak on the subject, "What's new in the instruction of arithmetic?"

The public is invited to attend this talk in the school auditorium.

Following Chamberlin's talk, parents are invited to visit the classrooms for an informal open house.

Next Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 9:30 a.m. all members of Sunset View PTA are invited to participate in a board meeting "with the privilege of discussing and voting on all issues."

Each chairman will report on her plans for the year. Mrs. Eleanor Herzman, principal, will explain the school's program in detail.

This meeting is to be held in the cafeteria with all members seated at tables. Refreshments and child care will be provided.

CWU Westerners To Play Palomar At Fallbrook High

California Western University's Westerners face their first game under lights and their last game of the season Friday at 8 p.m. when they play Palomar Junior College at the Fallbrook High School field.

Off comparative records, the game should be a toss-up, said Coach Al Lewis of Cal Western. "Oceanside Junior College beat Palomar 41 to 6 and we lost 32 to 7," he explained. "Since it's our last game, our spirits should be up. It ought to be a close game and a good one to watch."

Palomar used an unbalanced line, wing-T offense whereas Cal Western employs the pro-style split and spread-T attack.

Short on manpower all season during which they have garnered a 1-5 win-loss record, California Western has one first-string man definitely out of Saturday night's game and several doubtful starters.

"Ed Burroughs, first-string guard, is out for certain," Lewis said. "Ricketts, our first string quarterback, has the flu and hasn't been to classes this week. Other first-string men with injuries that might bench them are Bible, center; Schnobelen, tackle; and Quirk, reserve center."

ANNOUNCEMENT

Rancho Market Basket on Newport Ave. today (Thursday) started its third annual Mink Stole Promotion, according to Henry (Hank) Voss, manager.

"There are no obligations—you don't have to buy a thing," he said. "And don't forget, you'll be getting free Action Stamps, too, with every purchase."

'The Goose Hangs High' At CWU For Five Evenings Next Week

Are parents justified in sacrificing everything for their children?

Are children justified in accepting such sacrifices?

Are modern young people, especially college students, callous to the toil and struggle of their parents?

The answers to these questions will be found in the California Western University Play production of "The Goose Hangs High" by Lewis Beach. This play will be given in the Little Theatre of Solomon Hall on the evenings of Nov. 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23 at 8:30 p.m.

An all-student cast of 15 players has been rehearsing nightly. The leading roles are played by William J. Stroud, Lil Hopwood, Philip Harstine, Norman Lietchy, Lyndra Green, Genny Forrester, and Twyla Howe. Others in the cast are Robert M. Deming, J. Gene Walker, Nona Turpeau, Stanley Elam, Judd Overgard, Gerald Egan and Gene Corbin.

Silver Gate Tops Quota In United Fund Campaign

Silver Gate District of the United Fund drive this week became one of the first six districts in the county to reach its quota. (There are 165 districts in the drive area.)

The district, under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. R. Darron, has produced $1,585 or 114 percent of its quota of $1,391.

Meanwhile, the entire Ocean Beach-Point Loma residential campaign moved into second gear.

Mrs. James Marlow, area campaign chairman, reported collections here reached $9,800 or 41.1 percent of a $23,836 quota.

The collections are from homes in this area and from firms where four or less persons are employed.

The geographic division drive was launched Monday, Nov. 4. The countywide house-to-house goal is $315,800. Second week reports show the division at 28.5 percent of that figure, Mrs. Kenton C. Lint, chairman, announced.

Meanwhile, drive leaders reported the United Fund goal of $4,250,000 needed to provide operating funds for almost 100 health and welfare services next year, has reached $1,203,459 or 28.3 percent of its objective.

Rabbi Morton J. Cohn, campaign chairman, said every effort is being made to complete the one big drive for one big gift by Thanksgiving.

S.D. United Fund Going To Dogs

The United Fund is going to the dogs.

And the dogs are responding with contributions.

The latest dog to give up her biscuit money for the sake of almost 100 welfare and health agencies who will derive their operating money from United Fund is Queenie, a cocker spaniel who lives at 846 Bangor St., Point Loma.

"Queenie believes anything a Duke can do, a Queen can do," said her owner, Mrs. Elva Giles. "When Queenie heard a dog named Duke has contributed in El Cajon, she just had to do her part."

Rabbi Morton J. Cohn, campaign chairman, said he welcomed Queenie's contribution.

"This is a givers' organization," he said. "Man or beast, you're welcome to join in One Big Drive for One Big Gift. The organizations that will benefit from the $4,250,000 we're raising play no favorites either."

GENE AUSTIN HOME FROM HOSPITAL

California Western University's fifth annual Driftwood Show will be held Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 16-17, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the Starkey Memorial Science Bldg. on the Point Loma campus.

Mrs. A. G. Anderson, co-chairman, yesterday named the three judges who will select 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners in the 10 different categories of driftwood displays. (About 100 exhibitors are expected.)

The judges are Mrs. J. J. Kenneally, president of the S. D. Floral Association; Mrs. Virginia B. Phillips, assistant superintendent of art, City Schools; and Patrick Malone, director of the Art Center of La Jolla.

In addition to the awards chosen by the judges, the California Western show also awards a special prize to the driftwood display which amasses the most popular votes by persons viewing the exhibits.

The public is invited; there is no admission charge.

Howard Passel, of the California Western University faculty, is also serving as co-chairman. He announced the ten categories would be as follows:

Driftwood composition using fresh flowers and foliage; compositions using dried plants, vegetables and fruits; composition using pottery, glass, textiles; abstract pieces; driftwood miniatures; caricatures; hand-carved sculptured pieces; holiday compositions with seasonal materials; utilitarian such as lamps, coffee tables; junior division open to elementary and junior high school students.

Anyone may exhibit in as many categories as they wish, Passel said. Displays should be brought to the Starkey Memorial Science Building, 3902 Lomaland Dr., between 2 and 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, or between 9 and 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 16.

1957 Christmas Seal Sale Starts

Friday, Nov. 15 marks the beginning of the 1957 Christmas Seal Sale.

Last Friday, the bulk of over 240,000 Christmas Seal letters were delivered to the U. S. Post Office. This is the 51st year of the Christmas Seal Sale and is the largest mailing in the history of the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association. The gigantic task of preparing the letters for the Post Office was completed at the Indoor Sports Clubhouse Friday morning.

Christmas Seals are the sole financial support of the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Funds raised from the sale are used in research, rehabilitation, case finding and health education.

Tuberculosis is still an extremely serious health problem in San Diego County with 254 new cases found last year and 185 new cases discovered during the first 9 months of this year.

The San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association is a non-profit organization that uses the Christmas Seal Sale to raise the necessary funds to carry out their programs. The Association does not take part in any type of in-plant employee solicitation or house-to-house solicitation.

Dr. Albert L. Anderson, president of the Tuberculosis Association, in urging everyone to make this "A Christmas Seal Christmas," has pointed out that although the tuberculosis death rate has dropped, as a result of new drugs, more people than ever before are living with tuberculosis and its problems.

"We must continue to fight the killer, tuberculosis. Do it by buying and using Christmas Seals."

TEA, ANYONE?

Members and guests of Point Loma Assembly who wanted tea during the social hour of the meeting last Thursday lined up first at one end of the serving table and then at the other to hear both hostesses say, "I'm sorry. I have coffee here."

There was no tea in the kitchen, either. The committee was frantically trying to find the tea and discover, at the same time, how the mix-up came about.

At any rate, before you could say "Tea bag, tea bag, who's got the tea bag" there was enough hot tea on hand to cater the Boston tea party.

LIBLETS

Local teachers lined up and were "shot" Friday morning by Dr. Winton Oster. The doc donated his time and services to help foil the flu bug and keep OB safe from teacher shortage. (PS — The kids missed the show.) . . . When Ike Sherwin celebrated a birthday last week some joker sent him a toy flying saucer with the following note: "Come on up and see me sometime. Signed, Muttink."

Dec. 31 Deadline For Dog License Applications, Vaccination Required

San Diego city dog owners, expiring Dec. 31, 1959, may be must apply for 1958 dog licenses by Dec. 31, 1957. Late dog license applications will draw a penalty fee of $2.50.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, said yesterday that vaccination against rabies is required for dog licenses by city ordinance. The only type of vaccine now acceptable for city licenses, he said, is the modified live virus vaccine produced from chick embryos, which is good for two years.

Only vaccinations with this type of vaccine given between Oct. 1, 1956, and Dec. 31, 1957, are acceptable for 1958 dog licenses. If the vaccination certificate on a current dog license fee receipt shows a vaccination date of Oct. 1, 1956, or after, the dog owner may present the certificate and purchase a 1957 license at any of these locations: City Treasurer's Office, Room 162, Civic Center; Pacific Beach branch office, 1349 Garnet St.; or the City Pound, 1104 Azusa St.

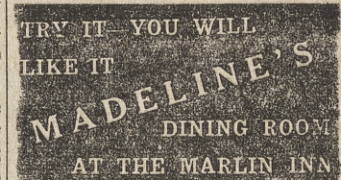

If the vaccination date on a dog's vaccination certificate is before Oct. 1, 1956, the animal must be vaccinated again. Vaccinations given with the required type of vaccine during November and December are acceptable for both 1958 and 1959 dog licenses.

A dog license valid for one year expiring Dec. 31, 1958, may be purchased for a fee of $3 or a license valid for two years

Better Business Bureau Issues Public Warning

A public warning against phony charity appeals was issued this week by Cecil Candler, general manager of the San Diego Better Business Bureau.

"Some of these fake charity schemes, which gain momentum during the Holidays, are operated by house-to-house solicitors who claim they represent local organizations," Candler said. "Others use the mails to defraud on a national basis, taking advantage of the generosity of the American people."

This is one of the most heartless rackets the local Bureau has to fight, Candler pointed out. Some appeals are plain fakes, he said, while others mislead contributors by turning over only a small percentage of funds to the charity.

The public can avoid playing into the hands of such operators by contributing only to well-known charity drives, such as the United Fund and others whose records justify public support. Where the charity seems worthy, but is unknown to the individual, the Better Business Bureau, located in the Spreckels Building in downtown San Diego, should be consulted. Legitimate drives do not fear investigation, Candler said.

HEALTH FOR ALL

You're leaving the hospital. The doctor says you're okay. He reminds you that you have to be careful and not take chances with your health. You've licked tuberculosis this time, but you don't want to go through it again.

Now, as you return to normal living, you would like to forget the whole thing. You tell yourself it's nobody's business but your own that you've had TB. Why advertise the fact? Some people with old-fashioned notions about the disease may be afraid of you.

Some employers may hesitate to hire you. It's been hard enough to take months out of your life for TB. Now you want to catch up on your living. You don't want to be hampered by the fact that some people you meet will have outgrown superstitions about the disease.

So, will you try to conceal the fact that you've had TB? Then, how will you explain when you have to refuse some extra heavy or overtime work, or when you have to break up the party early so you can get the proper rest? Or will you be a "good sport" and risk another breakdown with TB?

What would you do? Well, there's one thing we can all do. We can make it unnecessary for TB patients ever to face such a question. We can help correct misinformation about TB.

We can help spread the word that the ex-TB patient is not a danger to others, that he's less likely to be spreading TB germs than the person who boasts of never seeing the doctor. We can give him the fair chance that is all he asks.

(This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association.)

All Girls Want to Get Sacked

READY-TO-WEAR dresses in the new "sack" styles are coming from Paris designers who cater to the average French consumer, enabling customers to dress like those who buy from exclusive style-setting couturiers. These ready-made outfits for summer, 1958, were created by Pierre Billot. At left is a green tweed "sack" sheath; in center a two-piece, button-front dress of beige and white striped pique with sleeveless middie top; and at right is a blue wool "sack" with three-quarter sleeves.
